Présentation de l'éditeur

Hello, handsome Bohemian Waxwing perched on a snowy branch. A Baltimore Oriole in blazing orange and black. An American Robin feeding on holly berries. And a Western Bluebird surrounded by lilac blossoms on the cover. Audubon Songbirds & Other Backyard Birds Calendar offers the millions of birders hundreds of sightings for the year. With a large photograph at the top of each month's spread and smaller images throughout the grid below all in full colour this is an exuberant celebration of the jewel-like songsters that alight on our bird feeders, flit through our yards, and bring music and joy to daily life.
